NOVEMBER 2013

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 2013, 2:00 PM
CALLANWOLDE'S ELEVENTH ANNUAL MEMOIR READING
The Memoir: Stranger than Fiction

Students from the Advanced Memoir Seminar will present excerpts from their memoirs-in-progress. This literary performance will also include readings by guest artist, Thaddeus Rutkowski, a New York-based award winning author. A memoir is not a biography. It is not a balanced portrait. It is the writer's personal story; his impressions of friends, relatives, mentors and public figures. In the end, it's a matter of light. It is as if the author stands outside a house at dusk with a flashlight and a toolbox. He can shine light on any window; but once chosen, he must open it all the way and drag the reader in with him through the shadows to the deep, scary stuff. $10 Tickets will be sold at the door of the Samuel Goldman Retreat, and a champagne reception will follow. This program includes adult language and situations unsuitable for children. For more information, call Callanwolde at 404-872-5338

"VETERANS EXPRESSING THEIR STORIES"

Callanwolde and the Southern Order of Storytellers present the second annual "Veterans Expressing Their Stories" or V.E.T.S. storytelling program. Storytelling connects all of us, so bring your families, children and grandchildren to hear veterans from all branches of service over the past 70 years as they share their experiences through storytelling. The event is free and will be held in the historic Callanwolde mansion. For more information or if you are a veteran interested in sharing your story contact Anne Wallace at Anne50W@aol.com or 770-460-9946.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 13; 8 pm

POETRY READING

Join guest poets, Eugene V. Ellis and Collin Kelley, as Callanwolde celebrates the art and performance of poetry with readings in the unique setting of the Callanwolde Library. Eugene V. Ellis, an architect and graduate of Georgia Tech, has published poems widely in journals in England and the United States. His poetry collections include Alewives and Winter in the Tropics. Collin Kelley is the author of four poetry volumes, most recently Render, published by Sibling Rivalry Press, and of the novels Conquering Venus and Remain in Light. He is the managing editor of Atlanta Intown. Tickets are sold at the door, cash or check only. $5 General Admission, $3 Students with ID, Seniors, and Members.
