ADMISSION: Free and open to the public

Callanwolde and the Southern Order of Storytellers present the second annual “Veterans Expressing Their Stories” or V.E.T.S. storytelling program. Storytelling connects all of us, so bring your families, children and grandchildren to hear veterans from all branches of service over the past 70 years as they share their experiences through storytelling.

The program will also include presentation of the colors by Decatur High School JROTC Color Guard, and musical talent Andra London singing “The Star Spangled Banner,” Madison Hablas performing “America the Beautiful,” and Mary Elizabeth Kirkpatrick singing “My Country Tis of Thee.”

Emcee for the program is John Beavin, Storyteller and Veteran. Guests interested in displaying their Veteran uniforms and keepsakes, are invited to bring them prior to start of the event to put them on display. Display tables will be available in the Indoor Courtyard where the storytelling will take place. For more information on displaying items, contact Christina Bray at 404-872-5338 ext. 238.

The event is free and will be held in the historic Callanwolde mansion. For more information contact Anne Wallace at Anne50W@aol.com or 770-460-9946.
