In a perfect setting for summer outdoor concerts, Callanwolde's Jazz on the Lawn showcases a lineup of Atlanta's finest jazz treasures performing a mix of classic and contemporary jazz, swing, fusion, Latin and blues. Surrounded by the natural beauty of Callanwolde's grounds it's a great way to join friends, unwind and listen to an evening of live music. Guests are invited to bring a blanket and a picnic and enjoy these special concerts under the stars.

Jazz on the Lawn series continues throughout the summer as Callanwolde hosts a brilliant selection of musicians on the following dates:

Friday, June 13 at 7:30 pm

An Evening Of Duke Ellington With Ted Howe

Callanwolde opens its 2013 series with Ike Stubblefield and Friends. B3 organ virtuoso Ike Stubblefield is a music industry legend with almost 50 years in the business. Stubblefield's craft and ingenuity on the keys helped create the classic B3 sound that others would imitate for generations to come.

Friday, June 27 at 7:30 pm

Ike Stubblefield and Friends – Soulful R&B Jazz

Atlanta's highly acclaimed Latin band Serenata creates an unforgettable, international sound experience. Luis Cordero leads a 7-piece band that plays an energized evening of Latin jazz, samba, salsa and other creative styles with sax, flute, congas, bongos and timbales that will have you dancing on the lawn.

Friday, July 11 at 7:30 pm

Diane Durrett – Blues Jazz

Mojo Dojo performs quality jazz, blues and southern soul across the south and internationally. As bassist and featured vocalist, Scott Glazer leads some of Atlanta's top veterans and young bloods in a lineup of sax, trumpet, piano, drums and guitar. Their repertoire ranges from the Great American Songbook to fresh takes on the music of the Allman Brothers and Otis Redding.

Friday, July 26 at 7:30 pm

Joe Gransden – Straight Ahead Jazz

"Shaken Not Stirred" reinvents the beloved music from the James Bond legacy. Ted Howe's arrangements with Karla Harris' vivid vocals will skyrocket you through decades with 007 classics. Howe's accomplishments in many roles as performer, arranger, composer and his powerful touch on the piano have led him to work with luminaries such as Herbie Mann, Henry Mancini, Lainie Kazan, Buddy Rich and more.

Friday, August 15 at 7:30 pm

Bradford Rogers – Contemporary Jazz

Composer and jazz keyboard artist Madoca, has performed internationally and headlined many jazz venues in Atlanta. She teams up with The Prince Project to create an expressive, passionate performance – a mix of fusion, Latin and contemporary jazz styles.
